- B. Manuscripts must be the original work of the author and cannot have been previously published or accepted for publication. Direct quotes must be indicated.
- C. Manuscripts must be composed using a word processor and saved in Rich Text Format (.rtf). Documents must be double-spaced and pages must be numbered.
- D. Two manuscript copies must be submitted electronically in Rich Text Format (.rtf) to the Professional Education Development Chair at asnodgrass@dmhhs.org: one original with a cover page to include the author's name, address, telephone number, and email address, plus one unidentified copy. Files should be named using your topic such as mammography08 and mammography08 no cover.
- E. The author is responsible for preparing a PowerPoint presentation if the paper is selected for presentation at the Annual Conference. The presenters must forward their PowerPoint electronically (disk or email) to the Professional Education Development Chair at asnodgrass@dmhhs.org one week prior to presentation at the Annual Conference.
- F. If written authorization is given, winning manuscripts will be published on the ISSRT Web site. (Please refer to the online application form for permission.)

IV. MANUSCRIPT JUDGING

- A. The three manuscript judges will be selected by the Professional Education Development Chair and will remain anonymous.
- B. Judging will be done on unidentified manuscripts.
- C. Judges must not have foreknowledge of any individual participation in the competition. Non-compliance with any of these rules will disqualify the paper and/or the judge from the competition.
- D. Manuscripts are evaluated according to:
 - 1. Appropriate number and type of references 0-10 Points
 - 2. Educational/technical value to students/technologists 0-35 Points
 - 3. References properly cited in body of paper and reference list included at end of paper 0-10 Points
 - 4. Paper well organized. Good transitions. 0-25 Points
 - 5. Grammar, spelling, punctuation 0-20 Points

Total possible points: 100 points per judge; Judges' average scores will be used as the manuscript score.

- E. Judges will be instructed by the ISSRT Professional Education Development Chair that any score less than 85% must be accompanied by a written comment on the score sheet.
- F. Manuscript judging is completed prior to the Annual Conference.
- G. The three (3) manuscripts receiving the highest average scores of 85 and above will be eligible for presentation at the Annual Conference.
- H. The average score of those manuscripts selected for presentation will be averaged with the presentation average score for determining the final awards at the Annual Conference.

V. PRESENTATION JUDGING

- A. A second group of three judges will be selected by the Professional Education Development Chairperson to evaluate the author's presentation at the Annual Conference.
- B. Manuscripts selected for presentation at the Annual Conference cannot exceed 20 minutes reading/presentation time.
