

Rules of Procedure

RULES OF PROCEDURE FOR THE 87th ANNUAL CONFERENCE OF THE ILLINOIS STATE SOCIETY OF RADIOLOGIC TECHNOLOGIST

April 6-8, 2022

Bloomington, IL.

DECORUM

All attendees are expected to adhere to a level of professional behavior. Disruptive behavior will not be tolerated, and any conduct deemed disruptive by the hotel or any ISSRT Board Member will be dealt with immediately. This may result in the facilities contacting the local police department and the arrest or removal of the individual(s) involved, with no refund of monies paid for the conference and hotel.

Any damages caused by any individual(s) will be the responsibility of those individuals, not the ISSRT. Individual(s) engaging in disruptive/damaging behavior will be disqualified from competing in the Scholar Bowl and may result in the disqualification of his/her entire team.

Admittance to all business sessions, scientific sessions, special sessions and functions of entertainment will be only to those wearing identification badges and having the appropriate tickets when applicable.

You must wear your registration badge at all times to participate in the conference.

All registrants are requested to be seated promptly prior to the opening of all sessions and are requested to maintain a suitable level of courtesy and attention to the presenters and proceedings.

NO CELL PHONES ON OR IN USE DURING THE PRESENTATIONS. This behavior is not professional.

BUSINESS SESSIONS

All conference registrants are welcome to attend the business sessions. They shall observe the rules of decorum at all time.

Voting members shall hold current and valid memberships. Only voting members in good standing may introduce business to the Assembly.

All main motions and resolutions must be in writing and presented to the Chair prior to the introduction of the motion or resolution on the floor.

Only voting members may speak and participate in debate. The right to address the Assembly may be granted to a registrant other than a voting member by the consent of the Chair or by a majority vote of the voting members present. This rule will also apply to all special sessions.

Voting members who wish to address the Assembly should rise and be recognized by the Chair. The member should give his/her name.

VOTING SESSION

Only those active, life, and student members wearing registration badges will be allowed to vote.

ISSRT BOD MEMBER INSTALLATION

Officer nominations and election now being concluded pursuant to Article V, section 1&2. Officer Installation shall be conducted at the Second Business Session.